Mr. Wood, Curator
American Numismatic Society
Broadway & 156th Street
New York City

Dear Mr. Wood:

I am attaching a letter received from Mr. A. Gaylit, Box 4, General Post Office, Harbin, Manchukuo, in which Mr. Gaylit requests information about five copper coins that he found during the great war near the Turkish town Erzerum, in Asia Minor.

Upon telephoning your society to inquire whether or not you would be interested in the matter, I was informed that if I would send the letter to you, you would be good enough to write to Mr. Gaylit about it directly. I have written Mr. Gaylit accordingly, and I hope that his coins may be of sufficient importance to justify your interest in the matter.

Very truly yours

Everett E. Hale

Dear Mr. Hale:

Your favor of June 19th at hand and I will write Mr. Gaylit. Unfortunately his coins amount to little.

Very truly yours,
